Quakers get all of their points from just three players

Friends School, led by its sensational senior duo of Rossano Jones and Jihar Williams, overcame a slow start to surge in front of Chapelgate Christian Academy, Thursday in Baltimore, and the Quakers held on for a 61-60 victory, in the MIAA B Conference basketball opener for both schools.

Only three players scored for Friends (3-0, 1-0) with Jones and Williams combining for 50 of their team's 61 points. The other 11 were scored by junior Jacob Rainess.

Friends trailed 12-6 at the end of one quarter but battled back to tie the contest, 23-23, at the half.

Chapelgate (2-6, 0-1) received a huge effort from Jason Murphy who scored 15 points and had 17 rebounds. Jalen Morant also had 15 points for the Yellow Jackets.
