Eagles run away from hosts in championship game, 77-43

Jason Murphy and Montaz McCray combined for 40 points, Saturday night, leading the Chapelgate Christian Academy boys' basketball team to a 77-43 rout of host Harford Christian, in the championship game of the Harford Christian Tournament.

Murphy, who recently received a scholarship offer from Old Dominion University, had a game high 22 points, while McCray netted 18 and was named the event's Most Valuable Player. Both players were named to the All-Tournament Team, as was Jalen Morant.

Cliff McEachin added 10 points and a total of nine Yellow Jackets scored points in the contest.

Chapelgate (2-3) outscored Harford Christian 22-10 in the opening quarter and took off from there.
